

Points Reward System

We are excited to be introducing a new system to reward students when they behave in a way which reflects our values.

The rewards system celebrates the five school values of:

Points will be awarded for actions which are commendable for the individual student. A student who never speaks in class, for example, might be awarded a courage point if she endeavours to answer a few questions in whole-class discussion.

10

10 points (of a particular value)

email home from the form tutor and will also praise the student.

20

20 points (of a particular value)

presented with a postcard by their Head of Year to take home. A further email will also be sent home.

30

30 points (of a particular value)

invited to meet the Headteacher, and awarded a badge for that value.

You can support us and your child by talking to your young person about these values and the importance of them in our daily lives.

Good luck to all our pupils in reaching the Rewards Values Milestones!