

Are you considering teaching as a career?

Are you an ambitious individual with a good degree and a passion for making a difference?

- Watford Girls' Grammar School is a Lead School for School Direct teacher training and we are keen to meet with people who would like to train in the future.
- We can offer school visits to our school or to one of our partner schools.

Watford Girls is offering an exciting opportunity of a one year contract to work in school before applying to teach, these roles include:

- LSA/Cover supervisor

Offering one to one support and in class support for the SEND department and covering whole classes for absent colleagues.

- Sport technician

Working with the PE department to facilitate lessons and extra curricular activities.

Full training is given in these roles.

We are always happy to discuss this route into teaching please contact Jane Hart at Watford Girls: j.hart@watfordgirls.herts.sch.uk
