Headmistress: Miss Sylvia Tai BA (Hons)

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR SCHOOL EMPLOYEES

Watford Grammar School for Girls is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information. This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal information about you before, during and after your working relationship with us, in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Watford Grammar School for Girls is an Academy Trust school, company number 07348254, registered office at Lady's Close, Watford, WD18 0AE, registered as a company in England and Wales, and an exempt charity. We are well known for our rich academic curriculum, our strong and supportive pastoral care, and the wide range of extended activities that, taken as a whole, educate, encourage and empower our girls. The school motto is Sperate Parati - or 'Go forward with preparation' - which encapsulates our aim for every member of the school community.

We are proud of the strong academic traditions and the importance of service to others that have shaped the ethos of our school since its foundation by Elizabeth Fuller in 1704. We value hard work and nurture scholarship, always encouraging our girls to achieve excellence in all fields of study. The girls have the opportunity to excel at music, drama and sport, as well as to play an active role in the wider community by taking part in many charitable activities. Thus they learn to be their best selves: hard working, compassionate and high achieving in all areas of life.

We are a diverse and thriving community, founded on consideration, toleration and trust. Each girl is given opportunities to develop confidence and resilience both in and outside the classroom, and to develop a sense of personal responsibility that is best summarised in the maxim 'I can do it, and I will do it' - words which every member of the school learns and takes to heart.

As part of ensuring the effective running of our school it is essential that we hold and use data and information about parents/carers, pupils, staff, governors/trustees, and others with whom we have relationships. It is important to us that we do this professionally and in line with our statutory, moral and contractual obligations, and this notice is part of how we explain how we do this. Legally the school is a Data Controller under the Data Protection Act 2018 / the UK General Data Protection Regulation. This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. We are required under data protection legislation to notify you of the information contained in this privacy notice. The responsible officer at the school is Michael Lewis who is Data Protection Officer (DPO). This notice applies to current and former employees, workers and contractors. This notice does not form part of any contract of employment or other type of contract to provide services. We may update this notice at any time.

It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal information about you, so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information.

Please note that we may process your personal information without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

HOW WE USE SENSITIVE PERSONAL DATA INFORMATION

Particularly sensitive personal data requires us to ensure higher levels of data protection. Sensitive personal data is defined in our Data Protection Policy. We may process special categories of personal information in the following circumstances:

Less commonly, we may process this type of information where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public. We may also process such information about members or former members of staff in the course of legitimate business activities with the appropriate safeguards.

Our obligations as an employer

We will use your sensitive personal data information in the following ways:

If we do so, we will provide you with full details of the information that we would like and the reason we need it, so that you can carefully consider whether you wish to consent. You should be aware that it is not a condition of your contract of employment with us that you agree to any request for consent from us. We will record our asking for the consent and your decision whether to grant permission or not.

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our obligations and provided we do so in line with our Data Protection Policy.

Disclosure and Barring Service checks, or if information about criminal convictions comes to light during your employment with us.

AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING

Automated decision-making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. We are allowed to use automated decision-making in the following circumstances:

If we make an automated decision on the basis of any particularly sensitive personal information, we must have either your explicit written consent or it must be justified in the public interest, and we must also put in place appropriate measures to safeguard your rights.

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making, unless we have a lawful basis for doing so and we have notified you.

We do not envisage that any decisions will be taken about you using automated means, however we will notify you in writing if this position changes.

RIGHTS OF ACCESS, CORRECTION, ERASURE, AND RESTRICTION

Your duty to inform us of changes

It is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes during your working relationship with us.

Your rights in connection with personal information

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal information (data subject access request). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.

- Request correction of the personal information that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.

If you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact the Data Protection Officer, Michael Lewis, in writing.

The legal timescale for the school to respond to a Subject Access Request is one calendar month. As the school has limited staff resources outside of term time, we encourage employees to submit Subject Access Requests during term time and to avoid sending a request during periods when the School is closed or is about to close for the holidays where possible. This will assist us in responding to your request as promptly as possible. For further information about how we handle Subject Access Requests, please see our Data Protection Policy.

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is manifestly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

RIGHT TO WITHDRAW CONSENT

In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact the Data Protection Officer, Michael Lewis. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.
