

Appendix 20: Non-examined Assessment

Non-examination assessments measure subject-specific knowledge and skills that cannot be tested by timed written papers. There are three assessment stages and rules which apply to each stage. These rules often vary across subjects. The stages are:

- task setting
- task taking
- task marking (NEA, section 1)

The regulator's definition of an examination is very narrow. In effect, any type of assessment that is not 'externally set and taken by candidates at the same time under controlled conditions' is classified as non-examination assessment (NEA). 'NEA' therefore includes, but is not limited to, internal assessment. Externally marked and/or externally set practical examinations taken at different times across centres are classified as 'NEA'. (NEA, Foreword).

The purpose of this document is to confirm that Watford Grammar School for Girls adheres to JCQ regulations relating to non-examination assessments by:

- covering procedures for planning and managing non-examination assessments
- defining staff roles and responsibilities with respect to non-examination assessments
- managing risks associated with non-examination assessments

This document covers all types of non-examination assessment. (NEA, section 1)

Understanding how your work has been assessed:

Your work has been assessed in school. You can be confident that the mark you have been awarded is accurate.

A rigorous process has been followed to ensure that your mark is the right one. In particular, the teachers marking this work:

- Have received guidance from the Awarding Body.
- Have followed detailed mark schemes.
- Have worked together to complete a moderation process. This means they have looked at examples of one another's marking, and ensured that work is being marked in a consistent way.

The Awarding Body will request a sample of the work which has been assessed in school, and ensure that this work is marked to the correct standard.

Requesting a review of your mark:

If you feel your work has been incorrectly assessed, you may request a review of the mark. However, you should be able to identify why you feel this is necessary. The school is confident that your work is marked accurately.

If you wish to request a review, you must follow this process:

- You must think carefully about your work, and look closely at the mark scheme which has been used to assess it. You need to be able to state why you feel your work should have been awarded a higher mark. A copy of the assessment criteria can be found in the specification attached.
- You must complete the NEA review form.
- You must sign this and return it to the Exams Department, by the deadline in the box below.
- There is a charge for a review of the mark. This is £43 for a review of a GCSE piece and £48 for the review of an A level piece. This is to cover the costs of completing the review. You need to pay this, on Parentpay using the 'Additional Exams' item, before the review will take place. If you are experiencing financial hardship but wish to request a review of mark, speak to Mrs Brummerstadt or Mrs King in confidence.

If you do not meet the deadline, it may not be possible to review your work.
